THE SOCIAL CORNER

WHOEVER YOU ARE BE NOBLE, WHATEVER YOU DO DO WELL

SOCIAL CORNER POETRY.

What Grandmother Had. Grandmother used to go and see Folks who were sick and make them tes Of boneset and camomile And fuss around the bed and smile And not go 'till some neighbor came That she was sure would do the same.

Unless they met her at the door And put up an emphatic roar About its being smallpox or Boms allment to be watched for She never even stopped to nak If while about her loving task Herneif might be endangered. No, She hadn't read her Bible so.

She'd only found the texts that said "Siek have ye tended," "hungry fed." And such old fashfoned foolishness Ers modern wisdom came to bless.

Now when we hear a neighbor's III We close the door and wash the sill With antiseptics so we'll not Get the disease the friend has got. etimes I think bwere not so bad Should we catch what grandmother had.

Sent in by Sweet Fannie.

Help One Another. a this world I gained my knowledge And for it I had to pay. The I never went to college, Tet I heard the poet say "Lafe is like a mighty river. Flowing on from day to day. Men are shiftless lot upon it Rowing on from day to day.

REFRAIN Do your best for one another. Making life a pleasant dream, Help a worn and weary brother, Pulling hard against the stream.

Don't give way to foolish sorrow, Let this keep you in good cheer. Beighter days may come tomorrow. If you try and persevere. Darkest nights will have morning. Tho the skies be overcast. Longest lanes all have a turning, And the sun will shine at last.

So then-Sent in by E. M. R. C. P.

SOCIAL CORNER EVENTS.

April 12.—Meeting of Club No. 1, at Franklin Hall, Willimantic.

ANSWERS AND INQUIRIES.

list of Social Corner members, beived and forwarded as directed

WE MEET AGAIN; Your names have been added to the Social Corner list.

Social Corner Editor: Having been a t some of the Social Corner gath-I thought I would like to join if I will take for my penname TILL WE MEET AGAIN.

MORE GLD TIME ROAD TRAVELERS do not know but I have forfeited the once a year—whether he needed it or right to the Corner as I haven't written not." In over a year, but I have been just as minerasted in the sisters letters, especially family. Great Grandma's, as I used to live neighbor to her. I remember going to her house one time and she had a velvet panel hanging on the door on which she had painted a peacock. It was just love-

In speaking of the road travelers one girl and went to school one night just as school was dismissed Tom came along school was dismissed Tom came along and he scared me. I ran home and my father asked him what he wanted to scare his little girl for. He said, "I wanted to see her run."

wonder if any of the sisters remem ber Frank and Jane Green, two Indian busket makers. They lived in a house that stood on the road from Coryville to of Lebanon. I think Frank died in the poor house in Lebanon, I remember they heed to make baskets all winter and about the first of April they started out all covered with basicets. You could only see just their faces. They had backets from the size of a teacup up to the size of a peck basket. My mother bought me ine about the size of a cop and I have it now, though it is somewhat battered.

ANNA OF COLUMBIA.

DEALING WITH A BADLY RUSTED SINK. Dear Sisters: One of the sisters

quired a few weeks ago what to do for a rusty sink and the replies have seemed to me to deal with a sink that was only lo go home. If young girls had to have slightly rusty. I have one that is used mother or some older company than slightly rusty. I have one that is used mother or some older company than only in warm weather that will always themselves when they go to dances. I this is my way of cleaning it. Wet the of young girls who get discouraged with sink all over with kerosene and allow going the pace that they do nowadays, sink all over with kerosene and allow it to stand a little while to penetrate the runt then scrub with fine sand and soan suds, or a solution of sal sods, using an old fashioned mother to task to and advise her and keep her under the home roof, she might have been a different girl and not know the sorrow she did know. But we all have to play the game, Old fashioned or modern, we are on the street of the rootes of the sorrow are on the sorrow.

from rusting again, Thelian Deal: Thanks for birthday soms in the cluster and another that will open soon. To a lover of flowers what more acceptable gift can there be or bulbs that hold the promise of future surprises? TRIPLE E.

WOULD LIKE SOME ADVICE ABOUT

PLANTS Dear Sisters of the Social Corner: The namicst time in a woman's life is the wedding day; or is it when God sends the little baby to our hearts and homes. The most blessed thirt in all the world is a little craba Thu are mird proclous than gold. Perhaps the harotest time in must have drawn the lemon. Every one focusi't have that experience I'm glad of that. As for dress I believe in the happy medium. A dress should be ten inches from the floor. There was never so bad a style as the trail and short skirts have ame to stay. For a rusty sink scrub well, wipe dry, paint with a thick coat of hot ard. Let stand twenty-four hours then ard. Let stand twenty-four hours then scree with soap and very hot water. Whe dry and then rub well with kerosine every day. Don't ever paint a sink. If you can have a white enamel sink that is the

Who will write about plants? What in the best soil and care I love babies and plants. They are my hobbies. Why I chose my pen name was because I like smooth living and peace. There will never be any jarring with the right kind of love in the heart.

quest to know if there was a Social Corner chib anywhere between Ashaway and Noank, I received a very nice letter from Interested Reader. And what do you think? She lives only about a mile from me, so I hope to call on her ere you see this letter. She knows two other members near by, so that makes four of us. Now if we can only find a few more we can perhaps form a club. Let us hear from you members who live between those places. Silent Partner: I saw Tom Grinnell slient Partner: I saw for Grander when I was a child. He would say: "Tom won't hurt anybody." As a child I used to "dress up," and when I would be parading around I remember hearing my grandmother say: "Well, here comes Lix Stetson!" I never saw her, but imagine she "dressed up," too.

How many of you are putting down eggs? I do, in water glass. It is such I would not advise anyone to paint a sink. I had a tin bathtub painted once, but where the water would drip from the faucet it got all rusty. If I ever have one, shall try Canterbury Bell's remedy.

Here's hoping I hear from more members who live in this section. E. L. M.

Dear Corner Sisters and Editor: When one makes a success of an undertaking, she feels like shouting it from the housetop. When I read the recipes for cream puffs I decided to make some at once. The first venture was the same s Wetona's-just like pancakes, or

On the second trial I heated the scap-BTTA BARBER: Card received and stones and baked them in the fireless cooker. They came up fine and round, being in cup cake tins, but when removed down they collapsed more than so that all can try it.

baking.
Think I will do my shouting when I go flown cellar after the coal. Some time I will make another trial, after comparing notes with those who have made a success of them. Mandy: Your story of the man wear-ing the red flannel undershirt all winter reminds me of a former resident of our Dear Sisters of the Social Corner: I city who said he "always took a bath

With all good wishes to The Corner BLANCHE.

THE OLD FASHIONED MOTHER, Mr. Editor and Social Corner Sisters: As I was standing in the open door the other day, I heard these words spoken; "Such an old fashioned mother," spoken by a girl, and I thought to myself how ways combed her hair before getting breakfast, a mother who knew just what to do if you cut a finger or when barefoot hurt your toe, or one that always thought of home and loved ones there, knew nothing about lodges or the movies as the mothers do today. Yes, just an old fashioned mother, more or less rursy over winter and wonder if there would be as many suicides is my way of cleaning it. Wet the of young girls who get discouraged with Delich Deal: Thanks for birthday chances, but I would like to say to the loying was an amarylle just ready to bloom and it now has three lovely blost to think of and love is all one for you to think of and love in old home mem-ories, when you will sit of an evening with your mind on days of the past and think of what was your home when she left it for the resims above. So don't he ashamed of your mother because she is behind you in some things at the present time. For as she is today so you, too, will be in years to come perhaps just as old fashloned as some

MANDY.

CHATTERER'S HOT CROSS BUNS.

am sending a Steam Pudding Recipe: One cup of carrots, chopped, one cup of potatoes, one cup of suet, one cup of raining, one-half cup of sugar, one-half cup of sour milk, sait, two teaspoons of soda, one teaspoon cinnamon, one-half teaspoon cloves, one-fourth natimes flour enough for a stiff fourth nutmeg, flour enough for a stiff Best wishes to The Corner. PRIENDSHIP.

DO, OR GET DONE.

Do. OR GRT DONE.

I chose my pen name was because I like smooth living and peace. There will never be any farring with the right kind of love in the heart.

PEACE.

BETWEEN ASHAWAY AND NOANE.

Dear Social Corner Sisters: I want to tell you all that in answer to my request to know if there was a Social Corner chab anywhere between Ashaway and Noank, I received a very nice letter from Interested Reader. And what do you think? She lives only about a mile from me, so I hope to call on her ere you see this letter. She knows two other members the spect of the love Sisters: In this world it's one of two things, it's office on a rail-road train until he had whiskers for half fare—If she could? Wouldn't the average man break the speed limit if he had an automobile? That's the game as it has been and always will be. The monkey with the longest tall gets the biggest co-count. Yes, it's what we haven't got fully send you creeping Chartie. It is a very graceful running plant.

Delight: Thanks for all the pretty cannot be sure with a transfer side worth living after all.

Babe RETUPLEN ASHAWAY AND NOANE.

Dear Scion and Corner Sisters: In this world it's one of two things, it's office on a rail-road train until he had whiskers for half fare—If she could? Wouldn't the average man break the speed limit if he had an automobile? That's the game as it has been and always will be. The monkey with the longest tall gets the biggest co-count. Yes, it's what we haven't got will send you creeping Chartie. It is a very graceful running plant.

Delight: Thanks for all the pretty cannot be strawberry for the lovely birds. How Jim some of the lovely birds. How Jim some of

You enjoyed my recipes (?)
Mr. Dooley: We haven't seen that letter you promised every week.
MARCELLA.

WHO CAN SUPPLY THE WORDS? Dear Social Corner Sisters: I must wrte to The Corner today or my letter will be too late for our page on Saturday. Free Air: Thanks for the card, Should like to meet you, and maybe I will be Babe Ruth: As you wanted a lemon able to some time. Hope you will have ple recipe, I have one I like very much good luck with your sink with what you which I'll send:

and thought perhaps you might have the words to this ope.

At last spring has come. I see the rob-ins every day. Suppose we will all be busy with our housecleaning now.

Best wishes to the Corner.

DEW KIST.

THREE EGG ANGEL CAKE.

moved down they collapsed more than one-half.

NYNA: You have been included in the set of Social Corner members.

ANASTASIA and PAULA: Cards resided and forwarded as directed.

TATTING: Letter forwarded as required and forwarded as required and forwarded as a required and forwarded as a required and forwarded as required.

I have classed them with the "leaners." They may belong to the same family as those made at the baker's, but must be quite distant relatives, maybe and dold to the Social Corner list.

ANOTHER CORNER MEMBER,

Social Corner list, moved down they collapsed more than one-half.

Lilliween's recipe was followed for the third batch, no butter being used, and they were the best, but they wilted one-half.

I have classed them with the "leaners." They may belong to the same family as those made at the baker's, but must be quite distant relatives, maybe lean added to the Social Corner list.

ANOTHER CORNER MEMBER,

Social Corner list.

Think I will do my shouting when 1 moved down they collapsed more than one-half.

Three Rg Angel Cake: Mix well and sift together four times one can sugar. I 1-3 cups flour, one-half teaspoon oream of they were the best, but they wilted one-half.

I have classed them with the "leaners." They may belong to the same family as those made at the baker's, but must be quite distant relatives, maybe lean dold in three egg whites which have been beaten until light. Turn into ungreased angel cake tin and bake in very slow oven about 45 minutes Remove from oven, invert pan and allow move from oven, invert pan and allow Some to stand until cold.

Jeing for Angel Cake: One-half tea-spoon butter to two tablespoons hot milk and add gradually one and one-half cups confectoners sugar; add one-half tea-

This cake is very good with foing made the same as for angel cake, I hope everybody that tries these re There was a very large gathering a by a girl, and I thought to myself how many oid fashioned mothers can you find these days—the mother who in her dark carleo dress and big gingham apron always combed her hair before getting recipes I am sending in. I was sorry to hear of so many sic members, but hope they are feeling bet-ter by the time they read this letter.

ter suggested would be fine to keep it screen for the movies of life, each an send a recipe for eggless, butterless, actor or actress, taking a part in life's milkless, sugarless cake.

Eggless, Butterless, Milkless, Sugar-less Cake: One cup of unsweetened apple sauce, one teaspoon of soda in apple sauce, one cup Karo syrup, one cup rais-ins, one cup chopped nutmeats, one and one-half cups flour, three tablespoons melted lard cloves, clanamon and nut-meg to suit taste. Bake one hour in mod-curist. She tuffed away and polished rate oven. This is fine. Have chosen for my penname CONAWAH.

nor cross Buns.

Dear Social Corner, Sisters: I am send-ing my recipe for Hot Cross Buns: One yeast cake, one up milk scalded and cooled, one table-poon sugar, three-fourths cup sifted Hot Freez Bases One yeart cake, one to tray in the bases of the plant of the point of the point

Dear Social Corner Members: Just a few ilnes. I want to thank Hillside and Love for the birthday cards and Wild Flower for the present she gave me. I am sending a Steam P.

GETTING THE SEEDS BEADY. Dear Social Corner Sisters: What a beautiful day it was a week ago Sunday, and how much everybody enjoyed going out in the vernal sunsbine. I brought out all my flower seeds, thinking to have them ready, and then the week following nothing but snow and ice storms.

The brush and trees certainly were beautiful to behold. Well the winter, I hope, is most over and spring must soon appear. Already we have heard and seen some of the lovely birds. How Jim must color them walls in the woods where he fare—if she could? Wouldn't the average man break the speed limit if he had an automobile? That's the game as it has been and always will be. The monkey with the longest tail gets the biggest co-coanut. Yes, it's what we haven't got and what we want that make life worth living after all.

Babe Ruth: Don't hesitate to send in the recipes. My life isn't insured, but I live next door to the undertaker, so what'ts the odds?

Whirwind: It made me blush to read your recipe for happiness. Is it intended for married or single couples?

Rock Moss: Was pleased to hear that you enjoyed my recipes (?)

Mr. Delgart: Thanks for all the pretty and the strawberry fertilizer? Grandma H., Mother and I often speak of you and wish you well.

Marcella: I read every word of your recipe for happiness. Is it intended for married or single couples?

Rock Moss: Was pleased to hear that you enjoyed my recipes (?)

Mr. Delgart: Thanks for all the pretty and the strawberry fertilizer? Grandma H., Mother and I often speak of you and wish you well.

Marcella: I read every word of your precipe for happiness. Is it intended for married or single couples?

Rock Moss: Was pleased to hear that you enjoyed my recipes (?)

Mr. Declay: We haven't see the box.

I am very glad that Grandma H. is better and do hope she will continue to get better.

With best of wishes for the Corner.

With best of wishes for the grass turn green and the trees leaf out and most the will see the pretty and the pretty cards you sent me. I lide not attend the will all your best flower seeds.

I am very glad that Grandma H. is better and do hope she will continue to get better.

With best of wishes for the grass turn green and the trees leaf out and most of all I think I enjoy the birds when they cards you sent me. I lide not attend the will all your best flower seeds.

I am very glad that Grandma H. is better and do hope she will continue to get better.

With us.

I am very glad that Grandma H. is better and do hope she will us.

Twillight.

With best of with us.

APPRECIA

meetings.

© Quali: When I read your name it gave me an awful start, for it seemed as though you had almost taken my name. BOB-WHITE.

LEMON PIE,

Dear Editor and Social Corner Sisters: Have not written for some time but have taken great pleasure in reading the other letters, and attend the gatherings.

good luck with your sink with what the are trying now.

I wonder if any of the sisters have the words to the song. The Fuded Coat of Blue? I have seen where some of you have sent in words to other old songs and thought perhaps you might have the words to this ope.

Lemon Pie: Three-fourths cup of sugar, one temporal one tempor of four, yolks of tiree eggs, white of one well benten, the juice and grated rind of one lemon, one-half coven; never box. Cover with meringue of the other two whites when done.

Putting lemons in bot water before

Putting lemons in bot water before using them makes them jutey. Kitty Lou: Many thanks for the little favor you sent us all at the March meet-Grandma H.: I am so pleased to hear you are feeling better.

Cady: Was glad to see your name among the prize winners. I think you earn R. OLEANDER. LEMON MERINGUE PUBDING.

Dear Social Corner Sisters: I wender w many of you know how dis ing it is not to get The Bolletin on urday? It makes two Saturdays that ours didn't get here; but Tast Saturday I hap-pened to go to Norwich and got one Free Air: You certainly gave me a surprise. I did not expect it. Eva G.: Where are you? You have not answered my question yet. Canterbury Bell: I want to thank you Meringue: Beat white of the two eggs very stiff, sugar to taste; add #ttle lemon juice; put in oven to brown.

DESPISING OF YOUR WORK. Dear Social Corner Editor: Good Morning: Did it ever occur to you that joy their work despise it? and trimmed and tinted.

buy a farm."
I was astounded. "A farm! You told me you were born and bred in New York city."

thoroughly, then add, a little at a time, about one plant of sixted flour. Stir in the ed by rubbing them well with the inside sponge, cover and stand in a warm-place of a banana skin and men polishing with a soft dry cloth.

In washing sandy vegetables such as lightly. Cut into biscuits, score with a spinach, use a large pan and drain off the was born in New York too, but all sharp knife to form a cross, let rise another hour, score again, and bake is minutes in a hot oven.

Yours for The Corner.

CHATTERER.

Leather goods may be beautifully polishing with the inside of a banana skin and men polishing with a soft dry cloth.

In washing sandy vegetables such as spinach, use a large pan and drain off the was born in New York too, but all his people are farm bred. So I guess it's not go down the sink pipe. Even a spoon of sand will cut and wear a pipe more than gallons of water. It cannot be to strongly impressed on the memory that the waste sink and drain pipes are the cutes: tilings, and they bring more money than municuring a good to strongly impressed on the memory that the waste sink and drain pipes are intended for the passage of water only.

She had finished my nails and I have never set eyes on her since. KITTY LOU.

GARDENING. Dear Editor of the Social Corner:
Thank you for the yellow slip. I was very pleased to get it.
I also thank Cantorbury Bell for telling how to grow her favorite flower, as I had made the mistake of growing it as peremial instead of blennial. I wish more would tell about their success in gardening for there is always something to lears.

CADY.

WANTS YOUR EXPERIENCE

FOUND RECIPES VERY GOOD. Dear Editor and Social Corner Sisters:
I wish to thank all who sent devil and caramel cake recipes. I tried them and found them very good.
I suppose all the sisters are glad that spring is coming. I know I am. It seems to be the best time of the year for

Dear Editor and Social Corner Sisters: I wish to thank the sisters who so kindly sent in their salad recipes for which I asked so long ago. I meant to have written to the Corner before, but have been very busy. I haven't tried any as yet, but will in the near future. Black Eyed Susie: I do quite a bit of tatting, but I don't crochet any, for Interested Reader lives just below me and she does my crocheting and I in return make her tatting. She has done a lot of beautiful crocheting for me this winter which I prize very much. I am winter which I prize very much. I am like you for I like all kinds of fancy like you for I like all kinds of fancy work and enjoy doing it. I have been wondering who you are. I think your eyes must be black and your name is Susie, and hope sometime I may have the pleasure of meeting you.

Deliah Deal: I was very sorry that I couldn't meet with the sisters March 1, for I should have liked to have been there. They certainly have good times.

there. They certainly have good times, and I enjoy reading about them in the Corner. I also am very interested in tatting for I make quite a bit myself and I would have liked to have seen that collar for I know it must have been beautiful. Silent Stranger: You will have to get busy again and write us some more interesting things about the chuntry. Hope to see you soon and have one of our chats together. Hello, 168 M.: Haven't seen you very

With best wishes to mit.

TATTING. SOME QUESTIONS BY DON'T WORKL Dear Editor and Sisters: Now that I have induced the winter's accumulation of dust to give up the ghost, and haven't anything very pressing to do, except fill a few orders for tatting. I'll try to do my daily to The Corner once more. First not answered my question yet.

Canterbury Bell: I want to thank you for telling how to treat a rusty sink. I assure you I have often wondered what to do for that sink.

Here is a recipe that perhaps some of you have but those who have not may for the dear little calendar that to do for that sink.

Here is a recipe that perhaps some of you have but those who have not may for West was the first and we have not may be the first that the first week was former to the first week was found to the first week ness used like a runnings sale.

Jack's Wife: I wonder if you know the great sadness that has befallen Jim?

that are namy? Is there phiox, besides the white that is hardy?

This is a sort of odds and ends letter but I hope some of you will take time to read it and answer a few of my questions if possible.

Some time I want to write about some of the odd observations of the odd observations.

"Tou do it as if you liked the job," I said.
"I hate it." she replied succently. "If I can get enough saved up, I'm going to buy a farm."

DON'T WORRY.

GREETINGS FROM E. M. R. C. P. To the Editor and Sisters of The Cor-

7At One of The Pasnik Co.'s 5 Stores, Where Your Dollar Gives You 100 Cents' Worth of Merchandise.

BUY A LADIES' COAT AT PASNIK'S For $10.50 Worth $18.00

BUY YOUR MILLINERY AT PASNIK'S PIPING ROCK HAT $1.50

SAMPLE LADIES' HATS $2.97 — $3.97 Worth up to $9.00

Beautifully Trimmed CHILDREN'S HATS 97c and $1.97 Already Trimmed

BUY A SILK DRESS AT PASNIK'S WONDERFUL TAFFETA DRESSES $12.50 Worth $22.50

BUY BABY A DRESS, COAT, OR HAT AT PASNIK'S AND SAVE ONE-HALF OF THE PRICE

PLEASE TRY A PAIR OF LADIES' LISLE FULL-FASHIONED HOSE-AT PASNIK'S For 39c

BUY LADIES' SILK HOSE-AT PASNIK'S For 59c

They Wear Like Iron !

All Colors BUY OVERALLS WITH GUIMPES For 97c

AT PASNIK'S

THE PASNIK CO. Sell For Less

5 GOOD STORES IN 5 GOOD TOWNS - NORWICH, WILLIMAN TIC, PUTNAM, DANIELSON, AND WESTERLY.

Joyed hearing you, too.

With best of wishes to all the sisters and the editor.

TWO NEW CORNER MEMBERS. Dear Social Corner: Have been a spoon butter to two tablespoons hot milk and add gradually one and one-half cups confectoners sugar; add one-half cups confectoners sugar; add one-half teaspoon vanilla.

Here is a recipe that perhaps some of you have but those who have not may like to try it.

Fudge Cake: One cup of sugar, two tablespoons of cocoa, one-fourth cup of butter, one egg. one teaspoon salt, one teaspoon sod dissolved in one-half cups for milk, one and one-half cups of sour milk, one and one-half cups of flour, one-fourth cup of flour, one-fourth cup boiling water, flavor with vanilla. To be put together in above order.

Spoon butter to two tablespoons hot milk to do for that sink.

Here is a recipe that perhaps some of practical Polly's letter hast, week was fine. We are upt to get digs and unpleasant rubs enough at home without the spoons of cocoa, one-fourth cup of butter, one egg. one teaspoon salt, one cup of coid milk; dissolve; pour into four cups of hot milk; let boil until thick. Remove from fire, add yolks of two eggs, juice of one large lemon and pour into pudding dish.

All am to be the hostess for the next with a fam to be the hostess for the next with a fam to be the hostess for the next writes a few lines. It is the only time I do write, but as I am no good at talking or writing. It is hard work for me to pleasant rubs enough at home without strangers pulling our small efforts to pleasant rubs enough at home without strangers pulling our small efforts to pleasant rubs enough at home without the fine to get write a few lines. It is the only time I do write a few lines. It is the only time I do write, but as I am no good at talking or writing. It is hard work for me to do write, but a fine to take time to say that I thought is to write a few lines. It is the only time I do write, but as I am no good at talking or writing. It is hard work for me to do write a few lines. It is the only time I do write, but a fine to take time to say that I thought is the one in the principal correction. The provided to grow said ways to gr CLUB NO. I MEETS APRIL 12. come and bring your plate, knife, fork, seem to want to grow. spoon and cup, and something to cat as usual, and there will be plenty to wait on you all.

ALFARA.

Lear I won't have very good luck with them. I have a lot off hollyhock the plants was a silver sixpence. I still have some leaves of it, but I wonder if anyone has seeds? I wonder it, oo, if some of the dear experienced flower lovers could give me a list of the old flowers that are hardy? Is there phlox, besides the white, that is lardy?

This is a sort of odds and ends letter.

When done add the butter, vinegar and temperature was given us in our Sunday School class some time ago, which is, we do not experienced flower lovers that brown lightly in the oven. This recipe makes two pies which can scarcely be told from lemon pie.

Hope some of the sisters will try it and report. and report. Long live the Corner is the wish of > GUESSING ETHELYN'S MOTIVE. Dear Social Corner Sisters: How many of you spent the first of the month on the green and mossy bank of a babbling brook tempting the clusive trout with fly or dainty worm? Cretia: Yes, I realize I am very young at this mother-teacher game from the standpoint of a mother, but I am learn-thoughtlessly showed it to the workmen at the new school and told them where he found it. That night we scarcely slept a wink for fear of robbers.

Ha! Ha! Ethelyn, I think I have guessed your motive. Maybe you are thinking of starting a little discussion about prohibition to take up the attention of those who want recipes and those who don't; and those who enjoy seeing reader of the Social Corner for several years and have been asked by some of the members to join, so if I am taken in as one of you, will take for my penname HOPE. HOPE. Dear Editor and Social Corner Sisters:
I layee been an interested reader of the Social Corner, and I am asking if I may become a member? I will take for my ponname I will take for my Canterbury Bell: How are Canterbury Bell: How are my win-dow chums? I can hardly call my plants acquaintances much less "chums." A window left open reduced one to a mass

With best wishes to all.

ANASTASIA.

GREETINGS FROM CRIMSON RAMDear Corner Sisters: How does this beautiful day appear to you, after the wife is gone, the home is gone.

I wonder if any of you can remember a Sarah J. Moore who was born in Groton appearance of things I began to think we were going to have a second win
we were going to have a second win
Walpole Mass, where she married my grandfather, Charles Dunbar. She was a second win
ANASTASIA.

I know a man with much a spirit as his will continue to look up and say "Toy will be done," Dut I extend to him my sincere sympathy. When the wife is gone, the home is gone.

I wonder if any of you can remember a Sarah J. Moore who was born in Groton fig years ago? She moved from there to will be added to excuracy.

I would be giad to excuracy week ago Saturday very much with only one little advertisement way down in the little advertisement way down in the willimantic when a girl, and later to walpole Mass, where she married my grandfather, Charles Dunbar. She was grandfather, Charles Dunbar. She was grandfather, Charles Dunbar. She was sayenth son of a sayen Marcella. Your litter is received an the morthers do today.

Tex. Data nod flashioned mother, we have a way when the first one came it is openancy to me to be a seventh son. Their 6th wedding anni-litters are seventh son. The seventh son. Their 6th wedding anni-litters are seventh son. The seventh son. Their 6th wedding anni-litters are seventh son. Their 6th wedding anni-litters are seventh son. Their 6th wedding anni-litters are seventh son. The seventh son. Their 6th son their forms are seventh son. The seventh son. Their 6th son. Their

Hope I haven't taken too much

VALENTINE. RECIPE WANTED FOR FROSTED CUSTABD PIE.

To the Social Corner: Do any of The Corner sisters make a frosted custard ple? I have caten a delicious one—once—but all cook books seem to give only plain oncs. Now would be a good time to try it, as it doubtless takes more eggs than the other. Is the meringue added after the custard is baked?